

Revealed: the scrap winners in 2009

New car sales for January rose by almost 30 per cent with 145,479 new motors finding homes – the seventh monthly rise in a row.

Again, scrappage has been key. The newly extended scheme – which now runs to the end of March, but with no additional funds – accounted for 17.8 per cent of all new car sales in January.

Our table on the right shows the sales for all manufacturers under the scrappage scheme and makes fascinating reading. Ford tops the table with Hyundai in close second when these figures were released at the beginning of the month.
